

The Thomas Henry Huxley Award and Marsh Prize 2023

awarded annually for original work in zoology

The winner of the ZSL Thomas Henry Huxley Award receives a certificate and a monetary prize (£1200).

The Award is open to postgraduate research students attending university in Great Britain and Northern Ireland, on the basis of original work, which has been awarded the degree of Doctor of Philosophy during the period September 2022 to August 2023. Theses will be accepted a month before or a month after these dates but will only be considered once for the award.

Heads of Department are requested to recommend one postgraduate research student whose thesis is considered to be outstanding.

A letter or recommendation, along with the thesis and a detailed report on the candidate's work, should be emailed to linda.davolls@zsl.org

The following additional information should also be submitted:

1. The candidate's current address.
2. The length of time over which the research was undertaken.
3. The names and contact details of the examiners.

Recommendations must be received by 10 February 2024

ZSL Council request that the candidate should not be told of the recommendation.

For further information, please contact Linda DaVolls

Email: Linda.davolls@zsl.org